

REGIONAL PEDIATRIC MASS SURGE TTX 2024

OVERVIEW

Exercise Name	Regional Pediatric Mass Surge Tabletop Exercise (TTX) 2024
Exercise Date	Monday, February 19, 2024 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M.
Scope	This discussion-based exercise is scheduled for 3 hours with the Piney Woods Regional Advisory Council TSA-G & HCC-F (PWRAC) The location will be at the UT Health North Campus 11937 US 271 Tyler, TX 75708. Exercise discussion identifying recommended equipment and coordination strategies for the safe evacuation and mass surge of pediatric, neonate and responsible guardian services before, during, and after potential natural disasters and no-notice incidents across the 27-county region.
Mission Areas	Health Care Preparedness and Response
Capabilities	<ol style="list-style-type: none">2 Health Care and Medical Response Coordination3 Continuity of Health Care Service Delivery4 Medical Surge
Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Discuss pediatric, neonate, and related maternal service coordination strategies.2. Discuss equipment, bed capacity, alternate care sites, & transportation methods for the care of pediatrics, neonates, and related maternal services.
Hazard	All-Hazards: Natural Disasters & Human-Caused Incidents
Scenario	Four scenario injects are utilized to facilitate discussion for the different types of equipment, minimum personnel training requirements, and coordination strategies between the MOC and regional stakeholders for evacuation and mass surge.
Participating Organizations	PWRAC “RAC-G”, EMS, TDEM, DSHS, Air Medical, City & County EMCs, Public Health, Healthcare Facility Management, Free Standing Emergency Room Management, ER Departments, Regional, State, & Federal Partners.
Point of Contact	Michael Johnson, HPP Manager and Exercise Facilitator